Murder, Suicide Take Lives Of Waveland Couple

A Waveland couple, Fred Davis, 44, and his wife, Bessie Mae Davis, 49, of Middletown community, died of gunshot wounds Sunday evening.

According to Sheriff Sylvan Ladner the murder-suicide occurred about 6 p.m. at the Davis home. Two of their children, Fred, 13, and James, 11, were witnesses to an argument on the front porch of the home immediately prior to the shooting.

The sheriff said the youth told him their parents were arguing over a pistol, a .45 caliber automatic, and went inside the house, leaving the boys on the porch.

The boys said they heard gunshots and went to the home of a neighbor, who called the sheriff's office.

Davis was dead when the sheriff, accompanied by Chief Deputy Eldo Depreo and Deputies Chester Favre and Tommy Bourgeois, arrived. Mrs. Davis died enroute to Hancock General Hospital.

Sheriff Ladner reported both persons sustained bullet wounds in the chest.

An inquest jury, empaneled by acting coroner Justice of the Peace Nolan Ladner, ruled the death of Mrs. Davis as being at the hands of her husband and the death of Davis due to a self-inflicted wound.

Deputy Chester Favre served as bailiff and Eldo Depreo, Tommy Bourgeois, Sidney Bourgeois, Sylvan Ladner, Brewster Mollere and Patrick Toomey as jurors.

Survivors in addition to the two sons are six daughters, Kathleen, Elzerna, and Darnella Davis, Mrs. Rosalie Reed, Mrs. Geraldine Moore and Mrs. Mary Louise Carr.

The bodies were transferred from Imperial Funeral Home to Bayliss Funeral Home, Piquette, for funeral arrangements.

ROCKACHAWS GIVE 1965 GRID SLATE

The St. Stanislaus Rockachaws began spring football drills Monday afternoon with 14 lettermen on hand. Coach Billy Murphy announced that the annual spring intra-squad game will be held April 1.

LARGE CROWD ATTEND FATHER - DAUGHTER DINNER

Approximately 270 Girl Scouts, Brownies, their fathers and guests attended the father-daughter banquet Tuesday night in Our Lady of the Gulf school cafeteria on the occasion of Girl Scouts 53rd birthday.

Mary Lagarde, delegate to the Senior Round-up this summer, was guest speaker and the Rev. Lamar Martin, pastor Main Street Methodist Church, led Troop 242 in offering the grace.

Brownie Troop 188, under the leadership of Mrs. Richard Stamm, presented a pantomime. They portrayed England. Mrs. John Long's Troop 243, representing the United States sang America. The Brownies, Mrs. Robert Lucas' Brownie Troop 201, Sweden, presented a song; and Mrs. John Wilkerson's Junior Troop 132, Hawaii, entertained with a Hula dance. Other troops participating were Senior Troop I with Mrs. H. L. Long, leader, who portrayed Italy and Mrs. Jean W. O'd's Junior Troop 242, China.

Among guests were Mrs. Phoebe Jones, District Advisor, Long Beach; Mayor and Mrs. John Scarfide, Mr. and Mrs. Theo. Stachman, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Griffin, Mrs. O. J. Gaudet, Mrs. J. W. Clark, Jr., and Rev. Thomas White, assistant pastor, Our Lady of the Gulf Catholic Church, who gave the closing prayer.

DONKEY BALL GAME FRIDAY

A donkey basketball game will be staged at 7:30 p.m. March 12, at the Parish Hall, with Jim's Lagasse, Holy Name president, as general chairman.

SELECTED JAYCEES OF THE MONTH

Andre Arceneaux, winner of the Jaycee Distinguished Service Award, and Albert Brignac, Editor of the Jaycee publication, Spirit of Bay St. Louis, were selected by the Jaycee Board as Jaycees of the Month for January and February respectively.

Saint Stanislaus Sidelines Club held its annual installation supper February 27 in the brother's dining hall with 50 members and their wives attending.

Officers installed were Andre Arceneaux, local garage owner and operator, president; Lloyd Ladner, owner of Ladner's Seafood Market, first vice president; Horatio Favre, an employee at the Mississippi Test Site, second vice president and Brother Neri, S. J., secretary-treasurer.

The new slate was presented to the group by outgoing president George Seuzeneau Jr., who is employed at NASA, Michoud.

Since its organization during the time of Brother Peter, S. J., the Sidelines Club has been active in the sports field at Stanislaus.

Many improvements have been made at the Rockachaw stadium and other plans are in the making. The football field has recently been worked over and re-seeded and a new watering system has been installed to keep the turf in top condition.

It is planned to install new lights before the next season and plans to repair some of the buildings on the football field now in progress are expected to be completed by next kick-off time.

This year the Club presented a trophy to the football team for its outstanding record during the past season, and medallions were presented to each player.

Plans are also being made for the Award banquet near the close of school.

A date has been set for the Sidelines annual fair, which will be announced later.

HENLEY ELECTED TO SCHOOL BOARD FOR FIVE YEARS

Paul R. Henley was elected to a five-year term on the Bay St. Louis Municipal Separate School Board in Saturday's election.

Henley, superintendent of maintenance at Hancock General Hospital, will represent the Waveland and outside Bay St. Louis district. He received 212 votes. He succeeds J. W. Watts, Jr. who did not seek re-election.

Delmer E. Wilcox, Waveland business man, polled 107 votes.

LOCAL STUDENTS GIVEN MERIT SCHOLARSHIP TESTS

St. Stanislaus, St. Joseph Academy and Bay High juniors were given the National merit scholarship test Tuesday. At Stanislaus 58 took the test; 17 at St. Joseph's and 46 at Bay High.

Test scores will be reported back to the schools May 15.

The scores are also used by local schools for counselling purposes to determine the strength or weakness of the individual students in areas measured by tests, and to help determine what study they are best suited for in college.

DANCE

A teenage dance will be held from 7 to 11 p.m., Friday, March 19, at St. John's Parish Hall, Lakeshore.

Donation will be $1 per person. The proceeds will be used to purchase filling for the church grounds.

St. Clare's Holy Name Society will give a benefit fried chicken dinner from 11:30 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. Sunday, March 21, at the Parish Hall, with Jim's Lagasse, Holy Name president, as general chairman.

Donation will be $1.25 per plate.

What--No Candidates

While the deadline for qualifying for the May 11 first primary election for Bay St. Louis Municipal offices is April 10, no candidates have announced to date, election commissioner George Stevenson, said Wednesday.

When contacted, Mayor John Scarfide, who is serving his third term, said he will seek re-election. Commissioner of Public Utilities J. Cyril Glover and Commissioner of Finance and Tax Assessor Warren Traub, said they will also announce for re-election.

Commissioner Glover is completing his fourth term and Traub has been serving as commissioner since 1956.

HOSPITAL AUXILIARY MEETS; THANKS CARNIVAL WORKERS

Hancock General Hospital Auxiliary met Thursday at the home of Mrs. Leo Seal with the Rev. Lamar Martin, pastor Main Street Methodist Church, offering the opening prayer.

The "Pink Ladies" expressed thanks to all who helped with the float which won first prize in the Mardi Gras Day parade, to those who furnished the truck and lumber, Auxiliary members and Candy Strippers who assisted with decorating and those who rode the float.

Mrs. Bob Darnell and Mrs. Ralph Felming rode in the parade. Pictures were taken by Mrs. Charles Van Trier to be placed in the Auxiliary's scrap book.

An area work shop for the State Auxiliaries will be held from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m., March 25. Anyone wanting to attend can contact Mrs. Marion Oiestad at HO 7-4308. Mrs. Eugene Mogabgab will make the flower arrangement to center the table at the meeting.

Plans are being made to present a womanless wedding sometime in April to raise funds for the Auxiliary. The date will be announced later.

Anyone who wants to help with sewing for the hospital can contact Mrs. R. J. Reimike at 7-4274 and she will deliver and pick up materials to take to the hospital.

The annual coffee will be held from 10:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m., March 17, at the Felicity Street home of Mrs. C. C. McDonald Jr. to which everyone is invited.

Hostesses will be Mesdames A. P. Smith, A. M. Ortle, Leo Seal, Winthrop Baker, James Robert, Ben Hille Sr., W. H. Chevis, Lucille Weeks, Marion Oiestad, Henry Chapman, George Kpomos.

The public is invited to visit the altar from 5 p.m. to 11:30 p.m., Thursday, March 18.

Friday, March 19, the doors will reopen at 3 p.m. to distribute blessed bread and fava to those who may want them.

Anyone who wants to contribute for their own intention is invited to do so.

ADVERTISING FOR BIDS FOR BUILDERS IN BUFFER ZONE

The U. S. Army Corps of Engineers, Real Estate, Engineering, and Construction agent for NASA at this site, is advertising for bids for the purchase of surplus Government-owned buildings in the buffer zone of the Mississippi Test Facility in Hancock and Pearl River Counties, Mississippi.

The improvements consist generally of small frame buildings such as dwellings, barns and sheds, and a few more substantial structures which were vacated when the former owners moved out of the buffer zone. These improvements must be removed by 30 April 1965.

Bid forms may be obtained from the Corps of Engineers Real Estate Project Office, 159 Main Street, Bay St. Louis, Mississippi. (P. O. Box 54, telephone-number 467-5478 or 467-5479). Bid forms show location and identifying tract numbers.

Corresponding numbers have been painted on the buildings. The Corps of Engineers Bay St. Louis office has on exhibit photographs taken at the time the buildings were appraised by the Government.

These photographs do not necessarily show the present condition of the buildings, but are an indication of the type and size.

Bids will be publicly opened at 2:00 P. M. on March 23 in the Corps of Engineers Real Estate Project Office in Bay St. Louis.

Buildings left in the buffer zone in St. Tammany Parish will be sold at a date to be announced later.

BLOOD DRAWING MARCH 17

Hancock County Blood Bank Chairman John Rutherford Jr. announced a drawing will be held from 2 to 8 p.m., Wednesday, March 17, at the American Legion Home.

The bank, Mr. Rutherford stated, has been using an average of 50 pints per month and is practically exhausted at this time.

Since 1953, 5,000 units have been furnished by the local bank, the chairman added.

The goal for the coming drawing has been set at 200 pints and Mr. Rutherford is asking anyone between the ages of 18 and 60, physically fit, to please help in attaining the goal.

AWARD CONTRACT FOR GUARD HOUSES AT NASA MTO

Colonel R. C. Marshall, U. S. Army District Engineer at Mobile, Alabama, announced today that a $227,332 contract had been awarded to the Haddad Construction Corporation of Slidell, Louisiana, for the construction of guard houses and reception buildings at the two main entrances to the NASA Mississippi Test Facility reservation in Hancock County, Mississippi.

The new test facility, a division of the George C. Marshall Flight Center, is being constructed under the direction of the Army District Engineer at Mobile.

The guard houses will have a floor area of 50 square feet under a 960-square-foot steel roof. The south reception building, which will be the main reception center, will contain 5,600 square feet, while the north reception building will contain 2,900 square feet. Both buildings will be single-story, steel-frame structures, with precast concrete panels on the exterior. Interior finishes will be light-weight concrete masonry units and vinyl-covered gypsum board on metal studs.

The reception buildings will be completed in January 1966 and the guard houses in March 1966.

APPROXIMATELY 800 HAVE NOT FILED EXEMPTION

Tax Assessor George Heitzmann stated this week approximately 800 tax returns had not yet been filed for homestead exemption.

Many new homes have been built prior to January 1965, and owners are not taking advantage of the exemption, the assessor added. He is urging all those who have not yet filed to do so before the deadline, April 1.

Persons who built new homes last year will be assessed this year and many, Mr. Heitzmann said, are eligible for homestead exemption.

Those who are filing for the first time are required to bring in their warranty deeds and any new application must give their vehicle license tag number.

CORPORATIONS FILING DUE DATE IS MARCH 15

Corporation tax deadlines are coming up. District Director of Internal Revenue Service announced today, March 15 is the deadline for general tax law obligations for corporations reporting on a calendar year basis.

Mr. J. G. Martin, Jr., said that corporations must file an income tax return for 1968 on Form 1120 by March 15. If there are sound reasons why the return cannot be filed by the due date, an application for extension of time should be filed on Form 7004 on or before the due date. If the application for extension is submitted, at least 50% of the estimated tax liability must be paid with the application.

Corporations which have elected not to be taxed as corporations must file a Form 1120-S.

Unincorporated businesses which have elected to be taxed as corporations must file a 1968 income tax return on Form 1120. If the return cannot be filed, then an application for an extension of time to file must be submitted on or before the due date on Form 7004, with which a payment of at least 50% of the estimated tax liability must be submitted. The return must contain a statement that it is filed in accordance with Section 1361 of the Internal Revenue Code.

Document No. 5189, which furnishes detailed information on this subject, is available upon request from the Internal Revenue Service.

FIELD TRAINING TO SET NEW RECORD AT CAMP SHELBY

Camp Shelby. This year's annual field training at Camp Shelby will set a new record for the number of Guardsmen to train here since World War II. In addition to the non-divisional units of Mississippi and Alabama, the entire 31st Infantry "DIXIE" Division, also of Mississippi and Alabama, will train here. The total number of Guardsmen is expected to reach 16,000, a 4,000 man increase over 1964 field training.

THREE TRAINING PERIODS

The first training period from June 6 through the 20th will be for state headquarters and headquarters detachment of Jackson, the 62nd Ordnance Company of Hattiesburg, the Mississippi Army National Guard Officer Candidate School and the non-divisional units of Alabama. Approximately 5,000 Guardsmen are expected to train here during this period.

The second training period from June 27 through July 11 is set aside for the 31st Infantry "DIXIE" Division, commanded by Major General Claude F. Clayton of Tupelo. The division has approximately 6,000 men.

The final encampment with approximately 5,000 Guardsmen will include all Mississippi Army National Guard non-divisional units to include the 102nd Public Information Detachment, the 41st Army Band and the 210th Finance Dispensing Section, all of Jackson, the 427th Ordnance Battalion, with headquarters in Hattiesburg, the 138th Transportation Battalion with headquarters in Biloxi, the 150th Transportation Battalion with headquarters in Meridian, the 168th Engineer Group with headquarters in Vicksburg, the 223rd Engineer Battalion with headquarters in Gulfport, the 631st Field Artillery Group with headquarters in Jackson, the 4th Howitzer Battalion with headquarters in Newton, the 5th Howitzer Battalion with headquarters in Hattiesburg, the 213th Medical Battalion with headquarters in Jackson, the 108th Armored Cavalry with headquarters in Tupelo with its 1st Reconnaissance Squadron in Baldwin, its 2nd Reconnaissance Squadron headquarters in Ripley and its 3rd Reconnaissance Squadron headquarters in Senatobia.

PRE-CAMP RECONNAISSANCE

Commanders of the non-divisional units of the Mississippi Army National Guard met here Friday and Saturday, February 26 and 27, to receive briefings on bivouacs and supplies, gunnery ranges, billeting and post facilities. A similar conference will be held here March 5 and 6 for the major unit commanders of the 31st Infantry "DIXIE" Division.

"...and gentlemen, POWER is available"

This is a matter-of-fact statement when larger cities attempt to attract new industry. But what about rural Mississippi?

Yes... power is available there, too, because of Electric Power Associations. Your Electric Power Association is vitally interested in helping smaller communities develop industries in rural areas around them.

Electric Power Associations will continue to help upgrade Mississippi's living standards and economy... resulting in more jobs, greater output, better schools... and all the things that modern power helps provide.

Yes, gentlemen, power is available for practically any need through your Electric Power Association which is owned, operated and controlled by the Mississippi people it serves.
